Dear Frank,

Congratulations on being named one of the five finalists for the United States Olympic Committee's Developmental Coach of the Year Award. It is a great honor for us to be able to recognize the contribution that you have made to the Olympic movement.

The selection process is a difficult one. The USOC solicits nominees from each Pan-American and Olympic Sports Governing Body. A committee of three current and former coaches read, reviewed, measured and selected the five finalists from all the nominees in each category. This was a challenging task for them, but you were clearly identified of reaching a higher level. The United States Olympic Committee will be sending a special award to you to honor your selection.

The winner will be announced and presented the National award at a special luncheon (May 3rd) in Washington, D.C. The United States Olympic Committee will provide air fare, housing and meals for the winner and their spouse or significant other to attend the luncheon. We will be contacting the winner within the next two weeks.

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Cathy Sellers, Manager of Coaching, at 719.866.3236.

Again, congratulations on being selected as a finalist.

Cordially,

Doug Ingram
